TOWN MANAGER REPORT

June 9, 2022

Since the last report on 5/19/22:

Notable Events and Training:

The Williamstown Police department was happy to be able to assist with the Memorial Day Parade, as well as assisting with the investigation and recovery of several high value pieces of musical equipment that had been stolen. Officers also assisted in the execution of a search warrant that resulted in the collection of a large cache of drugs. Off duty staff have also hosted several kickball events for community members that have been very successful! Keep your eye on our social media for future events.
